Matthew Blais - Vancouver WA Neo-Nazi

Tue, Dec 25, 2018

Matthew Blais and Bogdan Gerasimyuk, two neo-Nazis associated with the Portland Daily Stormer Book Club, are employed by Securitas in Vancouver, WA as private security guards. These individuals have a long history of posting racism, anti-Semitism, and threats of genocidal violence online, and have taken part in organized campaigns of racial intimidation in local Portland and Vancouver neighborhoods, and on college campuses. Having these two fascists licensed and employed as private security in our community is unacceptable. We call upon the community to call Securitas' office in Vancouver and inform them of this fact, as well as make an official complaint to the Washington State Department of Licensing.

Rose City Antifa is exposing the identities of three neo-Nazis who are part of the local Daily Stormer Book Club (DSBC), known as the PDX Stormers. Since 2016, the PDX Stormers have harassed and threatened members of our community with anti-Semitic, white nationalist propaganda as members of the internet's largest community of Nazis and white supremacists, organized via the web forums of The Daily Stormer neo-Nazi website. Follow along with us using the hashtags #stormerbreaker and #debaseddoxx.

Today, we identify Vancouver, Washington neo-Nazi Matthew Blais: frequent contributor to the Cascadian Coffee Company (CCC) Discord logs, attendee of Patriot Prayer's never-ending hate rallies, and incessant fascist keyboard warrior.

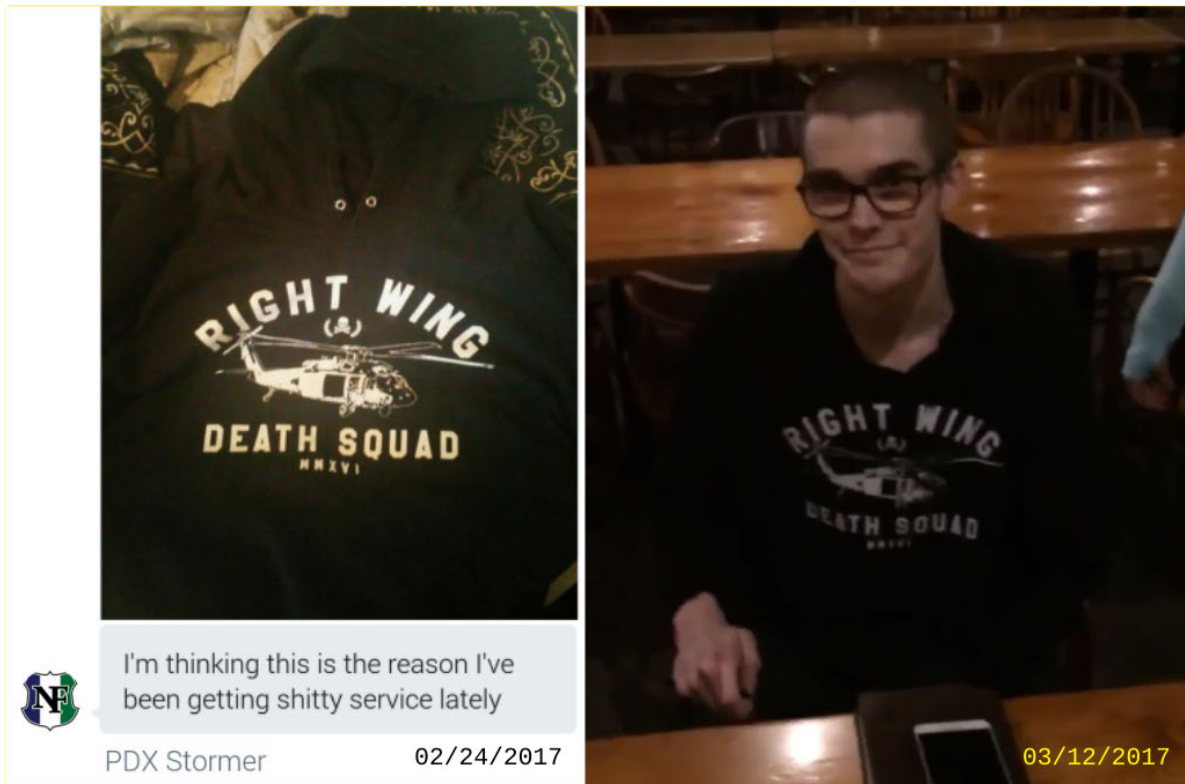

In addition to Blais's participation in the CCC Discord and his leadership role within the PDX Stormers organization, we have also identified him as the individual behind the Twitter account @EmpireGenerator, and as a participant in the Riot chat channel for "The Base," using another username he has often kept consistent across various platforms: "social conquest." Blais' involvement in neo-Nazi organizing both online and in real life over the past 2-3 years has been extensive, and his developing interest and focus on "leaderless" cell-style organizing (like Atomwaffen Division) and public support of fascist killers such as James Fields show him to be a clear threat to the local community. Below we provide an account of Matthew Blais' white supremacist organizing in the Pacific Northwest, as well as his current employment information, so that community members can make it clear that they do not want neo-Nazis living and organizing in their cities.

Blais' Attendance At Patriot Prayer Rallies And Other Events

There have been a number of masked or semi-clandestine PDX Stormers events—such as various racist flyering campaigns; a masked neo-Nazi march through downtown Vancouver; or the more recent "It's Okay To Be White" freeway display of November, 2018— which Blais is also likely to have directly participated in, but we will list several at which he was most clearly documented.

Shortly after Trump's inauguration, local press reported on an altercation which took place at the Lucky Lab Brewery in Downtown Portland. Staff confronted and ejected a group of neo-Nazis, some of whom were wearing MAGA paraphernalia. Among the fascists in attendance were Springfield, OR neo-Nazi Jimmy Marr, Corvallis, OR ex-rapper Nazi David Woods, and members of the PDX Stormers including Mike Dorsey, Bogdan Gerasimyuk, and Matthew Blais. Leaked internal communications also reveal that Blais was the source of business-card size white supremacist flyers which promoted the Daily Stormer website, Donald Trump's website, 4chan's neo-Nazi /pol/ forum, and which oddly misattributed disgraced evolutionary psychologist Kevin MacDonald's anti-Semitic pseudo-academic book The Culture Of Critique to white nationalist YouTube ranter Stefan Molyneux.

Leaked internal chats link Matthew Blais to twitter user "PDX Stormer" via a "Right Wing Death Squads" hoodie Blais was seen wearing at the Lucky Lab Pub.

Members of the PDX Stormers attended a hate rally organized by Joey Gibson which took place in the immediate aftermath of Patriot Prayer follower Jeremy Christian's double murder on the MAX train. August 20, 2017

In May of 2017, The Daily Stormer founder Andrew Anglin began posting about the solar eclipse which was to occur on August 21, 2017. He referred to it as the “Black Sun” (a common term also for the sonnenrad symbol commonly appropriated by neo-Nazis) and encouraged his site’s readers to take action for a “Summer Of Hate.” As August drew closer, the PDX Stormers began to coordinate with other regional neo-Nazis for a series of freeway banner displays to coincide with the massive spike in traffic brought about by the Pacific Northwest’s position in the eclipse’s path of totality. Blais himself participated in an anti-Semitic display over Atomwarren Division member Kaleb Cole (aka knimaere) responded with approval.

Joey Gibson scheduled a Patriot Prayer hate rally for downtown Portland, but hastily changed the venue to Vancouver Landing Amphitheater the night before the event when he realized that he would face massive opposition from Portland residents. Matthew Blais and other members of the PDX Stormers neo-Nazi organization such as Jarl Rockhill, Alex Becker, and “Might is Right” were in attendance at the rally.

On the anniversary of the murder of Mulugeta Seraw by neo-Nazis in Portland, OR, the PDX Stormers collaborated with Joey Gibson's Patriot Prayer followers to hold an "It's Okay To Be white" rally on a nearby freeway overpass in Vancouver, WA. Many neo-Nazis were present, and among them Raul Gonzalez displayed a knife with a swastika on it. A large number of anti-fascists showed up to oppose the fascist display.

Affiliations Within The Alt-Right

The Cascadian Coffee Company Discord server put Matthew Blais in contact with regional neo-Nazi’s affiliated with a number of different organizations, including American Front, Atomwaffen Division, and the Traditionalist Workers Party. Beyond that, though, Blais maintains an active role in forging connections and coordinating activities across white nationalist groups in the Pacific Northwest. Early messages within the CCC Twitter chat show him discussing attending a 2017 Northwest Forum in Seattle, along with Jeffrey Fairwater of True Cascadia. His links to TC include correspondence with another group leader, Herrenvolk, and likely included more direct local contact with True Cascadia members in the Portland metro area, such as Andrew Murphy Harkins. During action strategizing chats in the CCC served as a crucial link connecting those groups with more explicitly neo-Nazi organizers like Marr, Woods, Oswalt, and Combs. Photos from events attended by Blais and other PDX Stormers indicate clear social connections between the Stormers and numerous ex-“PSU Students for Trump” who are current Identity Europa affiliates, such as Liam Wynn.

Leaked internal chats reveal Matt Blais' attendance at the white supremacist "Northwest Forum" event, and his organizational associations with True Cascadia leaders "J Fairwater" and "Herrenvolk".

Organizing Role

Since the early days of taking a leadership role in forming a regional chapter of the DSBCs, Blais has come to view himself as something of a strategic guru in the contemporary fascist movement. Identifying himself as an adherent of insurrectionary secessionist strategies like the Northwest Territorial Imperative, Blais often posts long-winded, shallowly-researched Twitter threads of dubious advice on operational security, survivalist strategies, and tactical weapons use. His veneer of credibility with online Nazis is derived in part from the sheer volume of his obsessive posting, and also from his ability to remain heretofore anonymous online. In actuality, his lack of real-world organizing experience, youthful copy-cat mentality, and sole-association with other irresponsible neo-Nazi edgelords means that his value as a source of reliable advice to other neo-Nazis really doesn't surpass that of a social media megaphone. Furthermore, the information in this article should Matthew Blais, who resides at 2600 T St Apt 77, Vancouver, WA, offers his neo-Nazi followers advice on protecting their physical location.

However, that status as a willing megaphone for violence is hardly benign. Around August of 2018, Matt Blais began regularly posting propaganda materials boosting the Northwest Front, an organization founded by recently-deceased neo-Nazi activist Harold Covington, who had previously been ridiculed by Blais' fascist friends in the CCC logs. The Northwest Front is an organization dedicated to creating a white ethnostate in the Pacific Northwest region of the United States. A month later, Blais rapidly transitioned into recruiting for the militarized insurrectionary neo-Nazi network known as "The Base". Members of The Base network avow a set of "leaderless resistance" tactics similar to those outlined in James Mason's Siege newsletters (documents which became foundational to Atomwaffen Division, a neo-Nazi organization that has murdered multiple people in the past two years). Blais frequently encourages other participants in the online neo-Nazi milieu to "read Siege" with the aim of inducing them to participate in acts of "lone wolf" violence. Blais has also frequently recommended other Nazi literature such as The Turner Diaries and Adolf Hitler's Mein Kampf.

End the arguing and debate. The Northwest Territorial Imperative is action.

Pucket's primary affiliation is with the Hell Shaking Street Preachers and he is also a member of Joey Gibson's Patriot Prayer organization. Those fucks will be found and will pay. When the Lucky Lab shit happened, they got people calling and playing Hitler speeches over the phone for weeks. All of the employees got their Facebook accounts hacked, and one quit over the incident.
We do not forgive. We do not forget.

In a post on the CCC Discord, Blais speaks about the harassment and hacking of Lucky Lab employees that occurred after the PDX Stormers and other neo-Nazis were kicked out of that bar in March 2017.

Is there a demand for a secondary chat more secure than this? There are options, they're just less convenient than discord.

Threema is widely used. We in the Seattle BC use it as our primary communication tool but it's pretty much a mobile only option.

Mobile anything is not secure

On the CCC Discord, Blais espouses his amateur tech knowledge.

Rose City Antifa is dedicated to the pursuit of a community free of anti-Semitic, racist, and homophobic propaganda, and to exposing neo-Nazis before their ideology manifests itself in action. In the coming weeks, we will provide additional information to publicly identify Bogdan Gerasimyuk, and Michael Dorsey, two other members of the neo-Nazi PDX Stormers. Follow along with us here or through the hashtags #stormerbreaker and #debaseddoxx, and join us in exposing fascist organizing in the Pacific Northwest.

If you have information on the PDX Stormers or any racist or fascist organizing in your area, contact Rose City Antifa at fight_them_back@riseup.net.
